The Consulate General of India, Manchester, in association with the Ministry of Textiles, Government of India, organised a Roadshow on Technical Textiles on 24 September 2025 at The Edwardian Manchester, A Radisson Collection Hotel.

The roadshow is chaired by Smt. Neelam Shami Rao, Secretary (Textiles), Government of India, and brought together representatives from industry, business chambers and policymakers from India and the United Kingdom.

The event highlighted the growing opportunities in the field of technical textiles and served as a platform to:

- Facilitate business linkages between Indian and UK companies
- Explore prospects for trade and investment
- Exchange views with policymakers on the future of the sector

The programme concluded with networking and high tea, offering participants an opportunity to strengthen partnerships and enhance bilateral collaboration in textiles.
